

My experience with "The Great Turnaround" was one which I would recommend to anybody who has a heart for life and for how the Church can make a significant difference in our cities.

Bruce Wilkinson's presentation was both intensely personal and challenging, calling the church to action on behalf of those who could not speak for themselves—the unborn. His message was Christ-centered and Bible-based, and it was clear God worked through him to speak to all who were present.

It was an encouragement to me to see the level of participation of the churches in Santa Barbara as well as the pastoral representation from the ministries in our city. The turnout was inspiring and hopeful! It showed me that God is active among His people regarding this subject vital to our country and our culture.

I will definitely be an active participant in "The Great Turnaround" next year, and will encourage the church I pastor to partner once again in the good work that God has called Bruce Wilkinson and Network Medical to fulfill here in Santa Barbara!
